

DAVID BASS
Labor/Employment Arbitrator and Mediator
31 Whitney Drive
Marlboro, NJ 07746
(732) 972-1114
davidsbass@aol.com

Arbitration/Mediation

Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service Roster of Arbitrators
National Mediation Board Roster of Arbitrators
New York City Office of Collective Bargaining Register of Neutrals
New York City Office of Labor Relations and SSEU Local 371, AFSCME
New York City Housing Authority and Teamsters, Local 237
New York State Employment Relations Board Per Diem Arbitrator
New Jersey State Board of Mediation Panel of Arbitrators
New Jersey Public Employment Relations Commission Panel of Arbitrators
Pennsylvania Bureau of Mediation

Employment

Successful experience as labor relations/employment attorney, including service as spokesperson, for the 100,000+ employee New York City public school system. Until August 2002, high-level executive responsibility for solving and avoiding labor relations/employment law problems. During this period, served as deputy executive director of labor relations and collective bargaining, and of human resources.

Previously, five years as a public school teacher (and member of teachers' union)

Adjunct Professor (Education Law, Personnel Administration and Staff Development, School Finance, and School Business Management and Budgeting) since 1991 in various graduate educational administration programs - City University of New York, Touro College, and St. John's University

Education/Bar Status/Professional Affiliations

- New York University School of Law – Graduate Division
L.L.M. (labor law)
- New York University School of Law - Juris Doctor degree
- Brooklyn College - B.A. degree cum laude
- Member New York State Bar
- Admitted to practice before United States District Courts in New York's Eastern and Southern Districts
- New York State Bar Association and its Dispute Resolution and Labor and Employment Law Sections
- LERA: New York City, New Jersey, Philadelphia

January 18, 2012