

Francis X. Quinn
Arbitrator & Mediator

4213 Blackhaw Avenue
Ft. Worth, Texas 76107
QuinnFrank@msn.com

(817) 924-7372
(817) 924-4497 fax

3 BACKGROUND

Chaired mediations at the Center for Strategic Studies, culminating in the formation of the National Coal Policy
Appointed by three Secretaries of State as arbitrator and mediator for the Foreign Service Grievance Board and drafted new rules and regulations for grievance procedures
Chosen as Teacher of the Year by the Freedom Foundation for rekindling interest in the area of ethics and government
Elected to Hall of Fame - CSDAP - State of Pennsylvania
Arbitrated/mediated over 5,000 labor-management disputes
Elected to Hall of Fame - International Police Association

3 PROFESSIONAL AFFILIATIONS AND MEMBERSHIPS

National Academy of Arbitrators - Vice President, 1999-2000
Industrial Relations Research Association
The Association for Conflict Resolution - Charter Member
National Association of Railroad Referees - President 2001-2004
Fellow - The College of Labor & Employment Lawyers

3 EDUCATION

Manpower Fellow (1976-80) - Temple University, Philadelphia, PA
Ph.D. Alternative Dispute Resolution (1976) - California Western University, Los Angeles, CA
M.S. Industrial Relations (1966) - Loyola University, Chicago, IL
S.T.M. Theology (1964) - Woodstock College, Woodstock, MD
M.A. Education (1959) - Fordham University, Bronx, New York
B.A. Liberal Arts (1956) - Fordham University, Bronx, New York

3 PUBLICATIONS

- Books:
 - The Ethical Aftermath of Automation*
 - Ethics of Advertising*
 - Population Ethics*
- Manual for Disciplinary Proceedings - National Academy of Arbitrators
- "Ethical Considerations for Employee Assistance Professionals"
- The Ethical Education of the Pharmacist - American Association of College Pharmacists
- "Ethical Responsibilities of Policy Makers" - State of Wisconsin
- Report on the National Coal Project - Center for Strategic and International Studies

3 Additional background information available in Who's Who in America, Who's Who in the World, and Who's Who in American Law