

Security Procedures

NLRB Visitors

On June 19, 2012 all visitors to the National Labor Relations Board (NLRB) attending the National Mediation Board's (NMB) hearing being conducted in the NLRB's hearing room will:

1. Present one creditable form of picture ID, i.e., driver's license, or some other forms of government issued identification to the security guard.
2. Surrender the picture ID to the security guard in exchange for an NLRB special events badge.
3. Be screened with a metal detector wand.
4. Be issued an NLRB special events badge, to be worn at all times.
5. Be escorted via the East tower station elevator (only) by an NLRB staff member to the 11th Floor hearing room.
7. Return NLRB special events badge and retrieve personal ID when leaving the building for the day.

Note: NLRB special events badges can only be used for entry at the East Tower station.

The NLRB is located at 1099 14th Street, NW, Washington D.C., 20570

Security Procedures

Do's and Don'ts

Visitors do:

1. Bring one form of creditable picture ID.
2. Arrive early to get through security screening.
3. Wait to be escorted.

Visitors do not:

1. Bring weapons of any type, i.e., guns, knives, tasers, etc.
2. Carry bags or backpacks (purses and briefcases will be checked by Security).
3. Wander the halls.
4. Bring cameras (no photos will be permitted).
5. Bring alcoholic beverages into the building.
6. Eat or drink in the hearing rooms.

Note: While on the 11th Floor, visits outside the hearing room will be restricted to the restrooms.